Advanced Radio Control

ARC800 PRO

Software for Uniden UBC800XLT

ARC800PRO is the new software for easy programming and full remote control of the Uniden UBC800XLT GPS enabled scanner.

- System management: setup the 6000 channels / 500 systems easily in a spreadsheet type interface showing all Groups and Systems. Data can be imported from CSV, TXT or HTML files.
- .
- Radioreference Webservice*: directly import data from the largest scanner frequency database in the World (* subscription required)

- Software fully supports the Windows clipboard for easy copy/paste between applications.

- Easyfill option for quick setup of new memory banks.

- Enhanced System browser makes navigating between systems/groups very easy.

- Digital WAV audio recorder:

- History logging

- Setup GPS based scanning

ARC800PRO - General info and PC system requirements:

- Enhanced editor for memory systems and groups
- Enhanced Virtual Control screen
- Built in WebCatcher
- Compatible with RadioReference Webservice*
- Digital audio recording in WAV format (PC soundcard required)
- History logging
- Log frequencies, talkgroups and detected CTCSS subtones
- Software supports the UBC800XLT model
- Editor for configuration settings including custom search ranges
- Easy copy/move/swap entire memory systems/groups
- Data can be exported to CSV data format
- Search and remove duplicate programmed frequencies
- Windows 2000 / XP / Vista
- VGA Minimum resolution: 800 x 600
- Supports RS232 and USB ports (USB requires optional Uniden USB1 cable)

Dealer:

BuTeL

'simply the best scanner software in the world'